Dear Sustaining Partner,

“I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good in one’s lifetime; moreover, that every man who eats and drinks sees good in all his labor—it is the gift of God.” (Ecclesiastes 3:12-13)

I’ve had a lot of jobs in my lifetime, the first where I earned 35 cents an hour to work as a waitress/cook/cashier/anything-else-needed at a truck stop in Farmers, Kentucky when I was just sixteen. I have many good (and bizarre) memories from those days, but at the time I didn’t think of that work as a gift unless someone happened to leave a really large tip. Since, I’ve held a number of positions with a variety of companies, corporations and institutions.

For Life!
